DECEMBER 2010

Basic Truth:

Jesus wants to be my friend forever.

There is nothing more powerful than a baby's first Christmas. Looking down at that precious newborn's face as the Christmas lights twinkle around you. Counting each tiny toe and finger. Celebrating the ultimate gift of new life. As you look down at your precious bundle of joy, imagine the very first Christmas.

That amazing new life that came to save us all came as a little baby boy held in His mother's arms that Christmas night. He came for you. He came for your precious little one. He came for us all. Jesus, God's Son was God's gift to us that first Christmas. Celebrate Him this season!
